'Year 1-2'

Year '7'

Term '1,2 or 3 - Carousel'

Learning Intention: Tell me a wild story

The purpose of this SoW is to develop a passion for stories and develop confidence in reading visual images, exploring creative processes, use of imagination and excitement for making and interacting with each other. Pupils cover a broad range of introductory Art and Drama skills and develop knowledge of basic art and drama terminology. They develop their imagination by reading, selecting their own stories, researching and exploring characters in stories and developing skills needed for: Drawing, Painting, Model Making, Story telling, Roleplay and Drama Games. The project encourages pupils to develop their own interest in characters and story telling is facilitated through analysing, describing, interpreting and sharing key aspects of characters. Pupils are introduced to a range of options from S.J. Perelman, Julia Donaldson, J.K. Rowling and Roald Dahl. Pupils are encouraged to work together, discuss, play and develop a love of learning, peer respect and communication.

Talking points

Wider discussion should be encouraged through reading at home and discussing characters and different settings on TV, in the community and analysing how and why people react and behave the way they do.

Pupils should be encouraged to describe what they see and ask and answer questions on the differences and similarities between characters, people and animals they see in their everyday lives.
